Your Duty to take Reasonable Care not to Misrepresent

You have a duty to take reasonable care not to make any misrepresentation when entering into, varying, extending or renewing the Policy.

This means that it is essential that You respond to specific questions that We ask honestly and to the best of Your knowledge, including where We ask You to confirm or update information that You have previously given to Us when entering into, varying, extending or renewing the Policy.

For example this will include You or any other persons to be covered under this Policy and their claims (or incidents unclaimed or uninsured for), criminal and insurance history.

Answering our questions:

To assist You with providing Us with honest and accurate responses to any questions We ask of You, We have endeavoured to ensure that any question We ask are clear and easy to understand. Further, where possible, We have also included examples of the types of responses We are looking for when asking a particular question.

If You are unclear of any particular question or would like Us to explain it to You, please get in touch with Us and We will explain this to You.

In determining whether You have fulfilled this duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to Us, We will consider all of the relevant circumstances of a particular case. If You do not respond honestly and accurately to specific questions that We ask, We may (acting reasonably) cancel Your contract or reduce the amount We will pay You if You make a claim, or both. It is therefore vital that You be honest and specific in Your responses. If Your failure to tell Us is fraudulent, We will refuse to pay a claim and treat the Policy as if it never existed (this does not mean that We will refund any premiums that You have already paid).

Variations, extensions or reinstatement of your Policy:

You have a broader duty to tell Us anything You know or could reasonably be expected to know in Our decision to insure You and on what terms.

Renewals:

Where We offer You a renewal of insurance, We will provide You with a copy of the answers to specific questions which We have previously asked You and You have answered. This will be the basis of any offer of renewal of insurance by Us. You must tell Us of any changes necessary, if You do not advise Us of any changes it will be taken that all supplied information previously is correct and no changes are necessary.

What You do not need to tell Us anything that:

- reduces the risk We insure You for; or
- is common knowledge; or
- We know or should know as an insurer; or
- We waive Your duty to tell Us about.

If You do not tell Us something:

If You do not tell Us anything You are required to tell Us, We may cancel Your contract or reduce the amount We will pay You if You make a claim, or both.

If Your failure to tell Us is fraudulent, We may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.
