Market Liability proposal form

Please read these guidance notes before completing the proposal form

- This proposal must be completed in ink and signed and dated by such person (The Proposer) who must be of legal capacity and authorised by the Proposer to seek a quotation for Public and Products Insurance and any additional coverage that may be provided by the Insurer. Please answer every question fully, and state "NIL" or "NONE" as applicable. Incomplete answers may not be accepted and can delay quotation.
- Please submit, with the proposal, all relevant information including Financial Report and Accounts, brochures, requested documents etc.
- Should there be insufficient room in the Proposal Form for full details, please attach further information on signed and dated sheets, wherever possible following the same format and paragraph number.
- It is the duty of the Proposer to disclose all material facts to Insurers. Where this is omitted, the Insurers may avoid their obligation under the Policy.
- For the purpose of the Proposal and for all purposes relating to any policy issued pursuant to this Proposal, a 'material fact' shall be deemed to be one that would be likely to influence an Insurer's judgement and acceptance of your Proposal.
- Upon acceptance of the Insurers' terms and conditions and payment of the premium, all information provided by the Proposer together with the guidance notes will be deemed to be incorporated in the contract between Insurers and the Proposer. Copies of the Proposal Forms should be retained for your own records.

Important notices

Non-Renewable Contract

Any insurance policy issued will expire after 12 months. If you require the policy to be renewed please provide us with all necessary information in good time.

Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of insurance, you have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) to disclose anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that may affect the insurer's decision to insure you and on what terms. You have that duty after proposal, and up until the time the insurer agrees to insure you. You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of insurance.

You do not need to tell the insurer anything that:

- reduces the risk that is insured;
- is common knowledge;
- your insurer knows or should know as an insurer; or
- the insurer waives compliance with your duty of disclosure.

If you are uncertain about whether or not a particular matter should be disclosed to the insurer, please contact your Aon Client Manager.

Non-disclosure

If you do not tell your insurer anything you are required to, the insurer may cancel your contract or reduce the amount that it is required to pay you if you make a claim, or both. If your failure to disclose is fraudulent, the insurer may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Privacy statement

Lloyd's and its agents are bound by the obligations of the Privacy Act 1988 as amended by the Privacy Amendment (Private Sector) Act 2000 (the Act). This sets out basic standards relating to the collection, use, disclosure and handling of personal information.

*Personal information" is essentially information or an opinion about a living individual whose identity is apparent or can reasonably be ascertained from the information or opinion.

Information will be obtained from individuals directly where possible. Sometimes it may be collected indirectly (e.g. from your representatives).

Only information necessary for the arrangement and administration of Lloyd's business by Lloyd's, its agents and their representatives will be collected. This includes information necessary to accept the risk, to assess a claim, to determine competitive and appropriate premiums, etc.

Lloyd's and its agents disclose personal information to third parties who they believe are necessary to assist them in doing the above. These parties will only use the personal information for the purposes we provided it to them for (or if required by law).

When you give Lloyd's and its agents personal information about other individuals, we rely on you to have made or make them aware that you will or may provide their personal information to us, the types of third parties we may provide it to, the relevant purposes we and the third parties we disclose it to will use it for, and how they can access it. If it is sensitive information we rely on you to have obtained their consent on these matters. If you have not done or will not do either of these things, you must tell us before you provide the relevant information.

You are entitled to access your information if you wish and request correction if required. You may also opt out of receiving materials sent by Lloyd's by contacting One Underwriting Pty Ltd on 03 9211 3716.
